RECEIPT FROM PRESIDENT KAMALO SUGAR COMPANY

PARTIES TO BANK CASE WILL FILE BRIEFS—JOHN BIRD DENIES THE LIE.

A. M. Brown, High Sheriff, has made a report on the execution against Frank Hustace, John J. Egan and Frank H. Foster to satisfy the decree for $39,781.88 in the Kamalo Sugar Co. case. He realized $5700 by levying on real estate of Frank Hustace and files a receipt for the net proceeds, $5429.75, from David Dayton, president of the Kamalo Sugar Co. The items of the sale by auction have been already published in this paper.

Briefs are to be filed with Judge De Bolt within five days from yesterday in the case of W. T. Summers and others against Cecil Brown and others, involving the possession of the offices of the First American Savings and Trust Company.

John Bird denies the complaining section of his wife Polly's libel for divorce and consents that the case may be tried at the February term.

NO BUSINESS WAS DONE

There was a bare quorum but no business done at the meeting of the Bar Association called for yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. W. O. Smith, president, was on the high seas between here and San Francisco, and D. H. Case, secretary, was absent at Waialua. The Chief Justice was on hand to talk about the revision of Territorial laws he has in hand, while Mr. Weaver had a resolution favoring the Torrens land system and other resolutions ready to offer.

Those present were Chief Justice W. F. Frear, J. M. Davidson, Lyle A. Dickey, P. L. Weaver, Enoch Johnson, F. W. Milverton, John L. Kaulukou, A. G. M. Robertson, T. McCants Stewart, T. Harrison, J. A. Mathewman, A. G. Correa, E. S. Gill, A. F. Judd, C. C. Ritting, B. L. Marx, Messrs. Warren, Simmons and Derby.

After waiting twenty minutes Mr. Weaver moved successfully that Mr. Davidson take the chair and Mr. Milverton act as secretary. Mr. Davidson, on calling the meeting to order, ascertained that fifteen members constituted a quorum and a count of heads showed nineteen. He repeated a suggestion made to him that the meeting should adjourn until after the return of members now absent in Hilo. There would still be time left to adopt recommendations for the Legislature.

Mr. Stewart supported the suggestion, adding as a further reason the absence of the secretary. He moved that the meeting adjourn until Friday of next week.

Mr. Weaver opposed the adjournment. He thought progress might be made by taking up subjects and referring them to committee.

Mr. Stewart remarked that all present were not members and a larger attendance was desirable.

Four of those present admitted they were not members.

On putting the motion to adjourn, the chairman ruled that "numbers prevailed over sound" and the meeting dispersed according to the motion for one week.

Beet Sugar Plant For the Big Trust

Denver, Co., Jan. 14.—Contracts have been let by the Longmont Beet Sugar Company for the construction of a beet sugar factory at Longmont, Colo., that will cost over $1,000,000. The plant will have a capacity of 1200 tons daily and is to be ready to begin grinding beets October 1st, next. Farmers in the vicinity of Longmont have agreed to cultivate 6000 acres of beets next summer.

The local promoters of the enterprise announced today that money to build the factory is to be furnished by H. O. Havemeyer, of the American Sugar Refining Company, and associates. H. B. Niese of Jersey City, N. J., J. J. Kilby of Cleveland, Ohio, and others interested went to Longmont today to locate the site for the factory and complete arrangements for its construction.

MRS. WU COMING.

San Francisco, Jan. 14.—Mme. Wu, wife of Wu Ting Fang, late Chinese Minister to the United States, arrived here from the East yesterday morning, accompanied by C. H. Chan, secretary of the legation at Washington, and a maid servant. Mme. Wu arrived on the Owl train from Los Angeles, where she spent a day sightseeing on her way to this city, and upon her arrival here was driven direct to the Chinese Consulate, where she will remain until the departure of the steamer Korea to China to join her husband, who recently returned to his native land to succeed Sheng as Minister of Commerce. Mrs. Wu's health would not permit her to return to China with her husband, and she is now undertaking the trip attended only by her maid.

KAUAI SHIPPING.

The steamer Ke Au Hou arrived in port from Kauai this morning at 7:50 o'clock with 3,580 bags M. S. Co. sugar for Castle & Cooke and 11 packages sundries.

The following sugar is reported at Kauai ports ready for shipment: K. S. M., 3,800 bags; V. K., 500; W., 700; Mck., 29,350; Mck., 5,346; L. P., 500; H. M., 500; M. S. Co., 7,536; and K. S. Co., 500. Total of 39,732 bags.

Purser Deverill reports as follows: "The steamer W. G. Hall was at Ahukini. Finished loading sugar yesterday. She has a full load. The steamer Nihau was at Waimea discharging freight. The Flint was at Makaweli discharging freight. Fine weather across the channel both ways."

HILO APPRECIATES BAND.

Hilo, Jan. 23.—The Honolulu band has afforded the people of Hilo a great deal of entertainment during the past ten days. The band has played in our churches, at our schools and for the militia. It has played in wet weather and dry weather. The concert Sunday afternoon, at which both the Honolulu and the Hilo bands played, was the biggest drawing card of the week. The crowd numbered fully fifteen hundred and the playing of each band was literally applauded.—Tribune.

LUCKENBACH FREIGHTER NEW - TO-DAY

ANNUAL MEETING.

San Francisco, Jan. 17.—With the great freight steamer J. L. Luckenbach came abreast her berth this morning the gaping crowd on the end of the Lombard street wharf was hushed. It was like a funeral, with the music, and the flowers, and plumed headdresses left out.

In the minds of the onlookers was the one thought—they saw before them the phoenix of the fated steamer Saale, that was the death place of hundreds of poor men and women, roasted to death in the German Lloyd fire in New York harbor.

These were the portholes through which the victims thrust their heads crying for help and screaming in death agony. Most of these portholes are now covered over with steel plates, but the circle in the ship's side may still be seen as the plates are on the inside.

After the Saale, with her paint burned off, her upper works gone, her deck beams bent and twisted off, and the charred corpses removed from her hold, was turned off the Bergen mud flats, where she grounded, she was sold to L. Luckenbach. He rebuilt the steamer and rechristened her the J. L. Luckenbach.

This steamer, long and narrow, on the lines of the great Atlantic greyhounds, came into port today as the first of the Luckenbach freight line. Other steamers are now on the way from New York, competing for a share of the freight that has been given to the American Hawaiian boats heretofore.

The J. L. Luckenbach entered the harbor with all her signal flags flying in honor of her initial trip to San Francisco; but the waving bunting did not erase the memory of the greatest of ocean horrors in which she figured three years ago.

"MARITANA" PROGRESS.

The rehearsals of "Maritana" are now nightly occurrences and the singing and snap of the chorus work presages an excellent rendition of the opera upon its presentation. The principals are rehearsing steadily, and next week will see a series of final rehearsals with chorus and principals in combination. Tonight the chorus rehearses at Elks' hall.

The place to get pure Kona coffee is at C. J. Day's grocery, 25c per lb.
